Meeting Summary - September 2013

- The meeting was called to order at 7:00PM Thursday, September 19, 2013. 22 members were present. The Treasurer's Report was presented noting an ending balance of $1,585.73. The Treasurer's report and Minutes were unanimously approved.
- SHOW & TELL: Jack Hepler passed around a die from Penny Press and an example of the membership medal.

Old Business:

- Jack Hepler provided an update about Bob Glenn's medical condition. Bob's condition has not improved. Please continue to keep Bob in your thoughts and prayers.
- The membership medal is still in production. Penny Press is currently working to resolve issues with the encasing process but hopes for a resolution soon.
- Greg Coburn provided an update of club support required during the VNA Convention and the banquet. He told us that over seventy dealers with over 150 tables are expected and are likely to take part. Miley Frost, one of the designers of the Gold American Eagle bullion coin from the US Mint will be the guest speaker.
- The banquet committee accepted one of the three bids received from the caterers and made a final selection. 35 tickets were sold to date.
- RACC will support the local REACH Home-school group during the convention. Billy Hoovler is our point of contact. He's working on activities that will highlight the joys of collecting that will help to create a new generation of collectors.
- Taft dollars have not yet been received but will be offered at cost to interested members soon.

New Business:

- None was discussed.

RACC Birthdays!

- Penny Anderson-October 13

😊 Let the secretary know if you'd like to see your name listed when your birthday comes around. We'd love to wish you a happy one!

Happy Birthday to all!!!

Numismatic Word Origins: "A Penny for Your Thoughts"

The phrase, "A penny for your thoughts" first appears in the book "Proverbes" by John Heywood published in 1546. The book was re-printed in 1906. Figuring in the rate of inflation in the United States, a thought that cost a penny in 1906 would cost about 19 cents today.
