Meeting Summary - November 2015

- Billy called the meeting to order 7PM Thursday November 19th with 22 members and 1 guest present.
- Billy informed the club that Darrell had resigned as Secretary for personal reasons. Russ Pepper will serve as the Secretary until the June elections.
- There was no Treasurer report. The October minutes were unanimously approved.
- Kay recommended that the club website be identified on the monthly newsletter. Her recommendation has been implemented.
- Billy asked that the club begin to consider the upcoming elections to be held in June. Nominations for Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary are encouraged.
- Billy reminded the club that next month is the Christmas Brown Bag Auction. Randolph passed out brown bags to club members. Billy reviewed the process of the brown bag auction and asked that club members place a numismatic item in the bag valued at $2 or more. The club gets the proceeds for this auction. Unless a change is made, the Christmas meeting/auction will be held at Shoney's. Note that this event will begin at 6PM. Cost is estimated at $15 per person.
- Program: Dr. Suresh Sethuraman gave an outstanding presentation titled "Beauty in Money". Dr. Sethuraman is a Fulbright Scholar from India who is hosted by the University of Mary Washington for the 2015 -16 academic year.
- Next month is the club's Christmas party and auction. Note that we will meet at 6:00 PM.
- Billy provided a Canadian Silver dollar as a prize to the Young Numismatics who guessed the number closest to Billy's number. Congratulations to Ben who won the Canadian Dollar!
- Conclusion: The meeting adjourned at 8:15pm.

Old Business:

- The encased nickels and cents projects were discussed. Jack reported that he had been in contact with Kelly and that the nickels will be here before the Christmas dinner. A delivery date for the cents is not yet known.

New Business:

- None

Executive Board (EB) Meeting

The EB met on 11/24/15. Billy, Randolph and Sam were present.
