Meeting Summary – February 2019

- The Rappahannock Coin Club met February 21 at Scafa's Italian Restaurant at 10349 Courthouse Road, Mill Garden Plaza, Spotsylvania VA 22553. The February meeting was called to order by the club president Billy at 7:34 pm. There were 16 members present and 2 guests. Gregg gave the Treasurer's report. The ending balance was $2,790.67 which includes $150 in petty cash. Mark reported the minutes from the last meeting. Both reports were accepted by vote of the members present. The meeting was adjourned at 7:52. Mark once again was the lucky raffle winner of the American Silver Eagle. Moore was able to make it this month and gave another great presentation on different ways to start collecting currency.

REMINDER: Our meeting start time is now 7:30 PM. This is to allow folks time to get to the meeting and eat. We need folks to show up and also eat so that we can keep our meeting place.

• Old Business

- Jack shared the thankyou cards received for our donation in honor of Buddy Morgan.
- Gregg asked for members to provide ANA #s so that we can get our discount for our annual dues to the ANA.
- Gregg is still working on the encased coin display as a gift to our host.
- Jack and Gregg reported we have all the remaining nickels needed to finish our set of encased coins. Jack will be sending those to Penny Press.

• New Business

- Billy had forms to for tables at the Charlottesville Coin show if anyone was interested.
- Moore stated that the VNA has accepted our offer to allow them to use our Motto – Promoting Education, Preserving History
- He also displayed VNA shirts for sale.
- The big news is that Gregg will be opening his own shop in New Baltimore VA.

Executive Board (EB) Meeting

- The EB met at Scafa's at 6 p.m. on February 28th. Mark and Jack and Billy were present. The board is pleased with how the club is going. Jack got a price for the encased nickels but wanted to double check based on a smaller quantity than originally estimated. Please join us on February 28th if you can.
